Statement of Work

Section I – Paragraph C Daily Service Hours, Subparagraph 2. Is hereby deleted: “The Airports Authority may increase or decrease the number of Daily Service Hours established in 1.C by up to 15% without changing the Service Hour Rate. For additions or decreases that cumulatively total in excess of 15% of the established number of Daily Service Hours, the Airports Authority shall consider a request by Contractor to revise the Service Hour Rate, provided such request is submitted within seven (7) days after the Contractor receives a notice from the Airports Authority that results in a cumulative increase or reduction of the current level of Daily Service Hours by more than 15% and sets forth in detail the economic justification for Contractor’s Service Hour Rate revision request. The will promptly and in good faith consider the request, and advise the Contractor of its decision. The Contractor shall implement the increase or decrease in Daily Service Hours on the date required by the Airports Authority even if the Airports Authority has not made a determination regarding the Contractor’s Service Hour Rate revision request.”
